

Raiser's Brigade Volunteer Development Department

Agency Overview

Founded in 1889, Family Service Agency of San Francisco is the oldest nonsectarian, nonprofit charitable social-services provider in the City and County of San Francisco. Our mission is to strengthen families by providing caring, effective, and innovative social services, with special emphasis on the needs of low-income families, children, older adults, and people with disabilities, thus improving the quality of life for all San Franciscans.

Job Description

Volunteers will learn about fundraising from the ground up in a fun, group setting. They will help support a wide variety of activities including large mailings, phone-a-thons, events, and creation of social media.

Examples of Program Specific Responsibilities:

- Help us with large mailings
- Staff our annual phone-a-thons
- Become an FSA spokesperson and speak to churches and civic organizations
- Staff our tabling of materials at public events
- Help us keep our database updated by annual checks of our foundation and media information
- Help us plan and gather prizes for events
- Help us grow our Facebook and blog presence on the web
- Serve as an advisory group and idea incubator for the development department
- Help recruit new members for the Raiser's Brigade
- Help us host public events such as the upcoming event at the main library

Minimum Qualifications:

- Interest in meeting new people and working in a group setting
- Interest in learning about development within a non-profit
- Flexibility with scheduling

Additional Information:

- We are currently accepting volunteers. Volunteers will be provided an orientation.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Julia Doctoroff
415-474-7310 ext. 641
volunteer@fsasf.org

Welcoming

Strength Based

Culturally Relevant

Team Implemented

Recovery Oriented

Family Oriented

Advancing the Field